We need your support

The Heart Foundation is a trusted voice on heart health in New Zealand.

Through our wide-ranging heart health work we aim to give all New Zealanders the tools and support needed to ensure they can fulfil their lifetime.

This work includes:

- funding world-leading heart research
- developing heart health initiatives designed to keep New Zealanders' hearts as healthy and strong as possible
- education of all New Zealanders on how to have heart healthy lifestyles
- championing the best care for New Zealanders at risk of, or living with, heart disease.

As a charity we rely on the generous goodwill of donors, Lottery customers and other supporters to continue this vital work.

In more than 40 years, the Heart Foundation has made a difference to New Zealand's high rates of cardiovascular disease. But there is more work to be done and we need your ongoing commitment to help us beat heart disease.

Thank you for your support in keeping New Zealand hearts strong.

SLIP AWAY TO A SUNNY RETREAT...

1ST PRIZE

For the first time, the Heart Foundation Lottery offers a Jennian dream home in the coastal holiday destination of Whangamata as its first prize.

Whangamata is approximately 160km south east of Auckland, on the picturesque Coromandel Peninsula. It boasts a safe boating harbour for water-skiing and kayaking and a new marina.

Whangamata's amazing Ocean Beach provides some of the best surfing in the Coromandel and its surrounding bush clad hills are great for tramping and mountain biking.

This property is located at 211 Port Road, Whangamata. It is within easy walking distance to the main shopping area, which includes a great variety of cafes and restaurants, the local swimming pool and a nine hole golf course. Plus, Ocean Beach is a leisurely stroll from the front door.

This fantastic Jennian dream home is built-on concrete slab foundations, with Hardies Linea Weatherboard and Hardies Stria Cladding, a Colorsteel roof and double-glazed aluminium joinery.

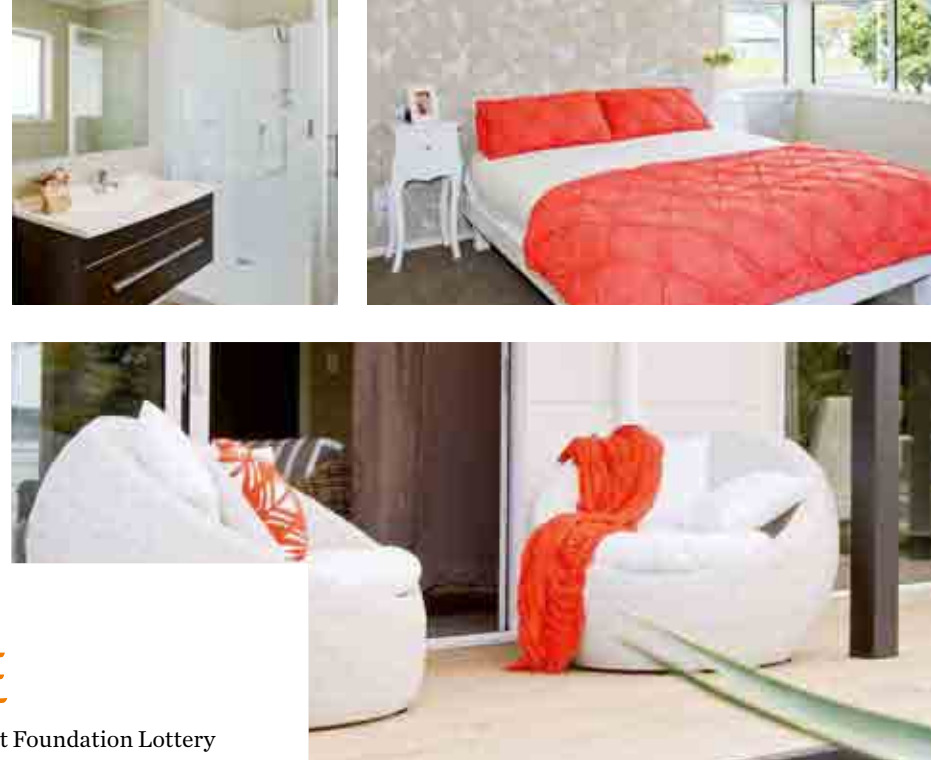

You enter the property off a recessed veranda and through a feature door that opens to the central hallway. Two double-sized bedrooms, a bathroom and double garage are all accessible from the hallway.

Downstairs offers open-plan living including two sets of sliding doors off the lounge onto the deck and patio areas. The living area extends directly into the kitchen, which includes a Fisher & Paykel bench top stove and rangehood, under-bench oven, dishwasher and fridge/freezer.

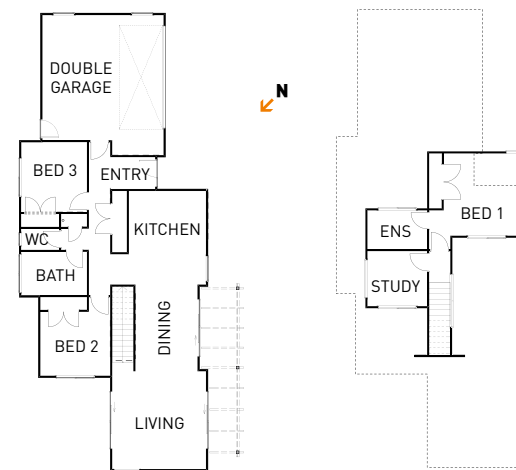

A stairway to the upper-level leads to a study and master bedroom, with a large double wardrobe and ensuite bathroom.

The house is tastefully finished and fully-furnished. This fantastic first prize Jennian dream home is valued at $545,000 and will make one lucky winner very happy.

The home is open to view 10am-1pm on Saturdays and Sundays from January 28, 2012 to March 11, 2012.

"WE NEVER MISS OUT"

You never know when you'll strike it lucky with the Lottery - and Shane and Adriana have made sure they'll never miss their chance. "Every Lottery it feels like 'this could be the one!'"

Shane and Adriana became Lottery Auto-Buyers 3 years ago and are proud supporters of the Heart Foundation's efforts. "It just made sense," Shane says. "That way we're always in with a chance while helping a good cause." Along with the main prizes, Auto-Buyers automatically go in the draw for the Earlybird $10,000 Cash Prize and the Auto-Buyer Bonus Prize getaway.

"It's nice to know we won't miss out on one of the six Lotteries each year. So when that lucky time comes around, we'll definitely be ready!"

Simply fill out the Auto-Buyer section on the coupon overleaf and send it in to join up!
