Cheap Eats is a collection of recipes designed to feed your family for less than $2.50 per person per serve, without sacrificing taste, quality or nutrition. We have provided you with some basic recipes to get you started.

Pantry ideas

Refrigerator/freezer foods

Lettuce, cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, beans, peas, mushrooms, capsicums, celery, leeks, silverbeet, mixed vegetables, margarine, eggs, reduced-fat milk, Edam cheese and reduced-fat yoghurt.

Pantry foods

Vegetable oil, vinegar, canned fish, fresh fruit, vegetables (tomatoes, corn, onions, fresh garlic, pumpkin, root vegetables such as potatoes and kumara – keep in a dark place), tomato purée, tomato paste, dried beans or lentils, dried pasta, brown rice, canned fruit, beans and vegetables, dried fruit, spreads, natural muesli, rolled oats/porridge, tomato sauce and UHT milk.

Best stored in airtight containers

Dried pasta (macaroni, spaghetti), brown rice, lentils, herbs, spices, iodised salt, pepper, sugar, baking soda, baking powder, wholemeal flour, peanut butter and chicken/beef stock (reduced-salt).

Purchasing advice

- ▶ Write a shopping list and stick to it
- ▶ Look for the food with the cheapest price per 100g or kg
- ▶ Choose fruit and vegetables that are in season, they will be cheaper and fresher. If a recipe calls for a fruit or vegetable that is out of season, look for something similar that is in season that you could substitute for it
- ▶ At fruit and vegetable markets be aware some of the vendors sell produce that are seconds and may not last long. Look for slightly under-ripe fruit and be careful choosing
- ▶ If you can afford to buy in bulk you can often get items for lower prices. This can be useful for:
 - ▶ Dry goods and products with a long shelf life
 - ▶ Cleaning products

CUT BACK ON junk foods, takeaways & foods or drinks high in sugar, salt or saturated & trans fats simple steps

Healthier eating can be easy. Why not start by taking one simple step?

Here are some ideas to add goodness to your kai:

vegetables & fruit : a variety of colours

my step

'Add one' more vege to dinner

'Add one' salad vege to your sandwich

'Add one' coleslaw to a takeaway meal

'Add one' piece of fruit to breakfast or lunch grain foods & starchy vegetables : wholegrain & high-fibre

my step

Swap from white bread to wholegrain

Choose baked potatoes or kumara instead of deep fried

Use wholemeal instead of white flour

Choose just one starchy or grainy food at a meal legumes, fish, seafood, eggs, poultry & meat : lean & skinless

my step

Cut the fat off meat and skin off chicken

Drain the fat from canned corned beef

Add a can of legumes to a dish and use less meat

Steam, grill or pan fry fish instead of deep frying milk, yoghurt & cheese : reduced fat junk food & takeaways : cut back

Switch to lite blue, green or yellow top milk

Swap from full fat to reduced fat cheese

Swap from a sweet bakery item to plain yoghurt

Try homemade instead of bought takeaways

Downsize from a big plate to a smaller size healthy oils, nuts & seeds

Swap from butter or ghee to oils or margarine

Choose a handful of nuts for a snack instead of potato chips

Add avocado to a sandwich or salad

Swap a can of fizzy to water or milk

Swap from two scoops of ice cream to one scoop

Food labels

Taking a little bit of extra time to read food labels when you're buying food can have big pay-offs, but it can be hard to make sense of all those numbers. Here's a quick guide to what the numbers mean.

Choose foods with less energy (kilojoules) if you need to lose weight

Choose foods lower in saturated fat. Eating unsaturated instead of saturated fats reduces risk of heart disease

Sodium is the harmful part of salt. When too much is eaten it can raise blood pressure

Nutritional Information
Servings per package: 3
Serving Size: 150g
	Quantity perserving	Quantity per 100g
Energy	608kj	405kj
Protein	4.2g	2.8g
Fat, total	7.4g	4.9g
- Saturated	4.5g	3.0g
Carbohydrate	18.6g	12.4g
- Sugar	18.6g	12.4g
Sodium	90mg	60mg

Shows how much of the nutrient is in one serving. The serving size is determined by the manufacturer

Use the 'per 100g' column to compare foods

Sugar can be naturally in food or added. Added sugar adds energy (kilojoules) but not nutrients

We recommend comparing the food labels on products and choosing foods that are:

- Higher in fibre
- Lower in saturated fat
- Lower in sodium
- Lower in sugar

If you are watching your weight, also look for foods that contain less energy (calories/kilojoules).

Tick family

The Heart Foundation Tick programme introduces a new member to the Tick family – Two Ticks. Foods with the Two Ticks logo makes it even quicker and easier to choose core foods for a healthy diet for you and your family. Remember, core foods are the basic foods that should be making up the bulk of your diet, such as:

Fruit and vegetables

Fresh, frozen and canned (natural juice) fruit

Fresh, frozen and canned vegetables

Cereal products

Wholegrain bread, pasta and noodles

Breakfast cereals

Whole grains, e.g. brown rice, oats

Meat and meat alternatives

Plain meat, poultry and seafood

Legumes, nuts and seeds

Dried and canned legumes

Plain nuts and seeds

Milk, yoghurt and cheese

Plain, low-fat milk and milk alternatives

Low-fat/sugar yoghurt

Tips on healthier eating

Cut down on animal fats

- ▶ Cut the visible fat off meat and take the skin off chicken before cooking
- ▶ Skim the fat off the top of stews, casseroles, soups and gravies
- ▶ Choose reduced-fat varieties of milk, cheese and yoghurt

Save on sugar

- ▶ Choose foods with the least amount of sugar
- ▶ Dilute pure fruit juice with water, even if it doesn't contain added sugar
- ▶ When using spreads, such as honey or jam, use small amounts and spread thinly

Keep salt (sodium) down

- ▶ Buy foods with lower levels of sodium
- ▶ Limit or do not use added salt during cooking. If you do add salt, use iodised salt
- ▶ Flavourings, such as herbs, spices, lemon juice and vinegar, can be used to increase the flavour of food without adding extra salt
- ▶ If you do use salt, gradually reduce the amount of salt you add to food

Fibre up

- ▶ Fill half your plate with vegetables and/or salad
- ▶ Eat 3 to 4 servings of fruit every day
- ▶ Choose dense wholemeal or wholegrain bread
- ▶ Eat larger servings of vegetables with smaller servings of meat

Alcohol

- ▶ Where possible choose alcohol-free drinks or low-alcohol drinks and serve food when consuming alcohol. On any one occasion, males should consume no more than 3 standard drinks and females consume no more than 2 standard drinks (1 standard drink = 100ml wine or 1 small can of beer)

Vegetables

Vegetables are great raw or cooked. To prepare vegetables, wash and cut them into even pieces so they cook quickly. Keep the skins on when possible. Choose vegetables when they are in season.

Preparing vegetables

Leafy vegetables – wash and remove any old, wilted or discoloured leaves. Cut into serving sized pieces.

Cabbage – cut into quarters, then slice.

Root vegetables (carrots, kumara, parsnips, swede, taro, turnips) – scrub or peel. Cut or slice into even pieces.

Cooking vegetables

Boiling – bring water to the boil in a pot. Add the vegetables and bring back to the boil as quickly as possible. Boil until tender when tested with a fork. Drain water off and serve immediately.

Steaming – place the prepared vegetables in a steamer or colander above a pot of boiling water. Steam until just tender.

Stir-fry – cut vegetables into small pieces. Put 1 teaspoon of oil into a heated pan or wok and add vegetables with 1 teaspoon of water. Stir-fry until vegetables are cooked.

Baking – cut the vegetables into large pieces. Bake in preheated oven at 180°C for about 25-30 minutes or until soft.

Microwaving – put washed and cut vegetables into a microwave-safe dish with 1-2 tablespoons of water. Cover and cook on high. For crunchy vegetables, do not cook for more than a few minutes. Some vegetables take longer to cook than others, so start with those first; e.g. carrots take longer than cabbage.

Potatoes

Boiling potatoes or kumara

Wash and dice the potatoes. Place in a pot and cover with cold water. Bring to the boil and cook for about 10–15 minutes until soft. Drain and use as required. Boiled potatoes can be used for many recipes. To make mashed potatoes, simply add a little reduced-fat milk to the boiled potatoes and mash with a potato masher or fork.

Oven-baked potatoes

Preheat oven to 180°C. Choose large or medium-sized potatoes. Scrub well, pierce with a sharp knife or fork. Bake potatoes for 45–60 minutes, or until cooked.

Microwave-baked potatoes

Choose potatoes of a similar size if baking more than one at a time. Wash potatoes and prick well with a knife or fork. Cook on high for 3–4 minutes per potato.

Stuffed potatoes

Cut an oval piece from the baked potatoes or cut potatoes in half. Scoop out the warm potato into a bowl and mix with fillings of your choice. Stuff potato shells with mixture and reheat in oven, preheated to 180°C.

Potato stuffing suggestions:

- Reduced-fat cheese and chopped onion
- Reduced-fat cheese and drained canned fish, e.g. salmon, tuna
- Baked beans or sweetcorn
- Reduced-fat cheese, chopped gherkins and herbs
- Reduced-fat sour cream and chopped chives
- Pickle or chutney
- Cottage cheese
- Tomato and chopped red onion
- Chopped, cooked, lean chicken
- Sautéed diced onion and lean bacon
- Chilli beans and mince

Pasta

Pasta is quick and easy to cook, and it can be eaten with or without meats and fish, in soups, salads and many other ways. To cook pasta bring a pot of water to the boil, add approximately 75g of dried pasta per person to the boiling water, stir and boil for about 10 minutes or until just soft. Drain and use.

Rice

Use brown rice or long grain rice for savoury dishes and salads or short grain for puddings and risotto. Use approximately 1/3 of a cup per person. To cook rice:

Absorption method

- Put the rice into a saucepan that has a tight fitting lid
- Add 1½ times the amount of cold water
- Cover with lid and bring to the boil
- Turn heat down to very low
- Continue to cook for 20 minutes or until water is all absorbed by the rice and the rice is soft

Boiling method

- Bring a pot of water to the boil
- Add rice and stir
- Boil until the rice is cooked
- Pour the rice straight into a colander.
Cover and leave it to stand for 10 minutes

Couscous

Place approximately 1/3 of a cup of couscous per person in a bowl. Just cover the couscous with boiling water. Cover with a lid or plate and leave to absorb for about 5 minutes. Once the water has absorbed mix the couscous with a fork to break it apart.

Alternatively

- Use reduced-salt stock instead of water
- Add chopped fresh or dried herbs
- Add grated zucchini or carrot
- Add diced avocado, sautéed onions, capsicum and cooked shredded chicken

Tomato pasta sauce Serves 2

Ingredients

1 onion, diced

400g can chopped tomatoes

1 clove garlic, crushed

2 Tbsp reduced-salt tomato paste

½ tsp chilli

Method

1. Cook onion in a non-stick pan with a dash of water until soft
2. Add chopped tomatoes, garlic, tomato paste and chilli and cook until thickened
3. Serve over pasta or brown rice, see preparation instructions on page 12

Tomato pasta sauce is an ingredient in the following recipes:

- Kofta with spicy tomato, yoghurt and couscous, page 19
- Meatballs with tomato sauce on pasta, page 20
- Chicken drumsticks in tomato sauce, page 21

Chicken stock Makes 1 Litre

Ingredients

1 chicken carcass
1 onion, diced
2 cloves garlic
1 carrot, diced
Half bunch parsley, optional
Celery leaves
6 cups water

Method

1. Cover the bones and vegetables in water and bring to a simmer
2. Continue to simmer for approximately 1 hour
3. Drain and keep in refrigerator for up to 3 days or in the freezer

Tips

Add a packet of Kings Soup mix

Cooked chicken bones will give the most flavour; you can use the leftover bones from a roast chicken or from cooked chicken drumsticks

Or make a vegetable stock simply by not adding the chicken bones

Bolognese meat sauce Serves 4

Ingredients

2 Tbsp oil

2 medium onions, chopped

2 medium carrots, grated or chopped

500g beef mince

2 x 400g can chopped tomatoes

½ cup water

Method

1. Heat the oil in a large saucepan
2. Gently cook the onion until soft
3. Add the mince and brown, drain off any extra fat
4. Add the carrot to the mince and stir well
5. Add the chopped tomatoes and water
6. Cook gently until the sauce has thickened; about 1 hour

Alternatively

Add a splash of vinegar, some crushed garlic, fresh or dried herbs to add more flavour

To make this recipe go further for a little extra cost you can add some dried lentils. To do this, add ½ cup lentils and ½ cup of water. The lentils will soak up the water

2. Serve them in a wholegrain burger bun with lettuce, tomato, grated carrot, sliced red onion, avocado and boiled or canned beetroot
3. Serve with coleslaw

MINCE

Kofta with spicy tomato, yoghurt and couscous

Method

1. Add 1 tsp ground cumin and or 1 tsp coriander to meat mixture
2. Shape into egg-shaped balls and grill or fry in a little oil
3. Prepare the tomato sauce on page 13
4. Add 1 tsp ground cumin and ½ tsp chilli to the sauce
5. Place the Kofta and spicy tomato sauce over couscous, see preparation instructions on page 12. Serve with a side salad and garnish with unsweetened reduced-fat yoghurt

The meat loaf recipe can be used in the following dishes:

Meatballs with tomato sauce on pasta

Method

1. Shape the meat loaf mixture into small balls
2. Prepare the tomato sauce on page 13
3. Simmer the meat balls in the tomato sauce for about 10 minutes until cooked
4. Serve over pasta with steamed fresh or frozen vegetables

Meatball soup

Method

1. Prepare the soup by lightly cooking a finely chopped onion in a saucepan with a little oil
2. Add a can of chopped tomatoes, a drained can of chickpeas or beans and 1 cup water
3. Add a large diced carrot and any other vegetables you have available
4. Season with black pepper and grated lemon rind
5. Place the meatballs into the soup and simmer gently until cooked through

Chicken drumsticks in tomato sauce

Serves 4

Ingredients

8 chicken drumsticks, skin removed

2 cups tomato sauce recipe, see page 13

500g seasonal vegetables, fresh or frozen, chopped

Method

1. In a large pan brown the drumsticks over a medium heat
2. Add the tomato sauce and vegetables
3. Cover with a lid or tin foil
4. Cook gently for about 30 minutes or until the chicken is thoroughly cooked
5. Serve over potatoes, couscous, brown rice or pasta, see preparation instructions on page 12

Tip

To check if the chicken is cooked, insert a skewer into the thickest part of the drumstick and when the skewer is removed the juices should run clear

Food safety – clean, cook, chill

Foodborne illness is caused by bacteria like Campylobacter and Salmonella. Bacteria multiply very fast in warm, moist conditions. Luckily these illnesses are avoidable by following some simple food handling tips. Clean, cook and chill www.foodsmart.govt.nz/food-safety/tips/clean-cook-chill/ will help you keep your friends and family safe from foodborne illness that causes upset tummies.

Five simple steps to eating for a healthy heart

1. Eat plenty of vegetables and fruit
2. If choosing meat, make it lean; include fish as an alternative
3. Choose low-fat milk
4. Replace butter with margarines and healthy oils
5. Reduce salt; check sodium on food labels

The Heart Foundation is New Zealand's heart charity, leading the fight against our country's biggest killer – heart disease. As a charity, the Heart Foundation relies on the generosity and goodwill of everyday Kiwis to support its work.

We provide support, care and advice to help people and their families affected by heart disease. We also fund leading-edge research and specialist training for cardiologists, while our education and prevention programmes tackle heart disease head-on in the community.

Through our work with young children, we create a foundation for keeping hearts healthy into the future.
